TOBACCO GROWERS ATTENTION.

Arrangements Completed For Pooling 1905 Crop--Conditions of It.

A BIG SAVING TO GROWERS.

It is with pleasure that your financial committee announces the completion of arrangements for the pooling of the 1905 crop of tobacco upon terms similar to last year with the exception that the Bank of Hardinsburg will make the money advances to the growers instead of the Louisville Warehouse Co.

The conditions upon which these advances are made are briefly as follows: The parties obtaining advances on their tobacco will be required to give the bank a lien on said tobacco, and in addition sign an agreement by which they become individually, jointly and severally responsible for the whole amount of money so advanced, including interest at the rate of 6 per cent. payable annually; said advances to mature and be payable February 1, 1906, or sooner, if said tobacco should be sold. The advances will be as follows: On the A and C grades of leaf and lugs $1 per hundred pounds. On the D grade of leaf and lugs $1.50 per hundred pounds. On the H and O grades of leaf and lugs $1 per hundred pounds. On the trash $2 per hundred pounds. On all non-descript there will be no advance.

In addition to the above, said bank advances $1 per hundred pounds to pay the rebanding, redrying, pricing, classing and hoghead expenses, and also storage and insurance until the first of November 1906.

Gentlemen, we, your committee, congratulate ourselves upon being able to finance our business at home. The objectionable feature of having our tobacco tied up with the Louisville Warehouse Co. is now eliminated, and we hope it will meet the hearty approval of all. Now let us hasten the completion of our storage house for the county and have it ready for this tobacco in order to relieve our rebanding houses when the pricing season comes.

Now, gentlemen, your committee wishes to call your attention to the saving to the growers under this contract. To store for a period of twelve months, and sell a hoghead of tobacco through the Louisville warehouse, costs as follows:

12 months storage.....	$3.20
Selling.....	1.50
Freight.....	1.50
Commission.....	1.00
Drayage.....	.50
Insurance.....	2.00
	$9.70

Now, under the present contract, insurance will be the only expense, and it will not exceed $3 per hoghead. Deducting $3 from $9.70 we have a saving of $6.70 per hoghead or $6,000 on one thousand hogheads.

Your committee further announces that Barney Squires will rebate for the Equity people at the Allie DeFarante house on the Stephensport road, John O'Reilly at Hardinsburg and E. F. Lyons & Bro. at McQuady, and said rebates are now open to receive tobacco. We also hope to open the house at Kirk in a few days, and also one at McDaniels.

Officially promulgated by G. S. Wilson, Chairman Finance Committee Breckenridge County American Society of Equity.

Bill Against Cigarettes.

A bill was introduced in the senate Thursday to prohibit the manufacture and sale of cigarettes.

Rheumatism

Is one of the constitutional diseases. It manifests itself in local aches and pains,--inflamed joints and stiff muscles,--but it cannot be cured by local applications. It requires constitutional treatment acting through the blood, and the best is a course of the great medicine

Hood's Sarsaparilla which has permanently cured thousands of cases.

For testimonials of remarkable cures send for Book on Rheumatism, No. 7, C. L. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

NOTABLE LIFE CALMLY ENDED.

Mrs. Satterfield, One of Town's Oldest Women, Dies After Long Illness.

MOTHER OF 16 CHILDREN.

Mrs. T. F. Satterfield is dead. Born, July 14, 1827. Died, January 7, 1906. Age, seventy-eight years.

Cause of death, senility. A life well spent; a woman that has been a credit to Cloverport; a mother of sixteen children, was all swept into eternity Sunday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock by the gentle hand of Him who knows best. Without fear or doubt this notable life was ended.

Mrs. Satterfield was the wife of the late T. F. Satterfield, of this city, the mother of 16 children of her own and seven orphans. Eight of her own children survive her. Laura, Charles, Lorna, Thomas, Luther, James Satterfield and Mrs. Viola Jackson and Mrs. Lizzie Jackson. Mrs. G. G. Wine, a daughter, and Allen, a son, are dead. She had been a confirmed invalid for five years.

Mrs. Satterfield was married at Pinceton, Ky., where she was teaching school, and the home of Mr. Satterfield. Soon after the marriage they came to Cloverport where both lived until death. Being a mother of a large family and possessing means, she entertained a great deal in anti-bellum days. The Satterfield home was always known to have the open door for old and young. During the Christmas holidays this old home echoed with merriment. While the civil war was raging, Mr. Satterfield bought the present homestead and moved his family there. Here, Mrs. Satterfield, during the rebellion sheltered many soldiers.

As a member of the Presbyterian church she made her presence felt for good. Joining this church soon after her arrival here, she remained a consistent worker in it until she became an invalid.

She was a sister to the late John Allen, of Princeton, and a niece of the late Col. D. R. Murray, of this city, the late Mrs. Dr. Sebastian, of this place.

The funeral services were held at her late home at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. The interment was in the Murray family grave yard.

Beckham County.

Another effort will be made by the legislature to cut off sections of two or three counties and organize a new one, so that they can name it Beckham county. Mr. Beckham's pet idea is the same thing on the legislature of 1905, they tried it again in 1904 and succeeded in passing the bill through both houses. It is needless to say it was promptly signed and proclaimed to be a law, for the county was named Beckham, but when they re-run the lines as given in the act, they discovered that Beckham county crossed the river and took in a good strip of the State of Ohio, and robbed an adjoining county of its county-house. Thus the first county of Beckham died a born-in. Now another effort will be made to perpetuate the memory of the loss by cutting a slice out of Ohio, Breckenridge and Grayson counties, and forming a new county that they may perpetuate the memory of the first Governor of Kentucky who used his pardoning and appointing power to increase his personal influence with corrupt politicians in order that he might defeat the will of the people and gratify his own ambition.--Mayfield Monitor.

Light Plant Destroyed.

Fire between two and three o'clock on New Year's morning completely destroyed the Cannellon electric light plant which was located on the river front near the water works pumping station.

Mrs. Conrad Entertains.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Conrad had a party of friends to 6 o'clock dinner at their home in the west end Wednesday evening last. Games were played in after dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Oelze, Mrs. Mary Oelze, Miss Ethel Oelze, Miss Judith Miller, Miss Grace Plank, Messrs. Walter Oelze and Harry Hills.

Will Walker, of Clover Creek, neighborhood, was gone to Jackson, Kans. where he will farm.

MRS. JO PORTER'S NARROW ESCAPE.

Lamp Bursted and Fire Endangered Her Life and Home.

WAS RESCUED BY DAUGHTER.

Mrs. Jo Porter had a narrow escape at her home in the West End from a horrible death last week. While attempting to place a lamp upon a table Mrs. Porter let it fall, the lamp burst and flew into a mass of flames, catching Mrs. Porter's apron afire and endangering the entire house. Had it not been that her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Mullen, who was in an adjoining room, heard the confusion and gone to her mother's rescue, death would have been probable. Mrs. Mullen jerked the apron off her mother, and with the assistance of her father, Mr. Jo Porter, smothered out the fire.

Mrs. Porter is 64 years old and one of Cloverport's esteemed ladies.

PATE--BRICKEY NUPTIAL KNOT

Tied at Bride's Home Sunday Afternoon in Presence of Nearly 100 People.

ARE OF PROMINENT FAMILIES.

Miss Lucretia Pate was married to Mr. Frank Brickey Sunday afternoon at the bride's home near Hardin's school-house, by Rev. B. M. Currie of this city.

Miss Pate is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Pate. Mr. Brickey is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brickey, of Mattingly, where Mr. and Mrs. Brickey will live at Mattingly, where Mr. Brickey is engaged in farming. Both are members of prominent Breckenridge county families. Nearly a hundred relatives witnessed the ceremony, the wedding being one of the largest that has ever taken place in this community.

Miss Pate is a pretty young woman, gifted with that enviable kind of beauty that is only possessed by country girls. She is accomplished and very popular. Mr. Brickey is a prosperous young farmer, and will make his mark in the agricultural world.

The News extends best wishes.

Marshal DeHaven

Investigating Robbers.

Marshal DeHaven, of Cloverport, was in Owensboro Friday making investigations concerning the robbery of stores in Cloverport and Hawesville, thought to have been committed by Owensboro negroes. George Douglas was thought to have robbed Wilson's store at Hawesville, and a clock was found in the possession of Mary Smith and identified by Wilson as one that had been taken from this store. It was taken to Hawesville, and the clerk in charge of the clock department examined it and stated that it did not come from Wilson's store. But Frank Fraize, a Cloverport merchant, whose store was also robbed, positively identified the clock as one that he had lost. It is believed that a gang of Owensboro negroes are making a regular business of visiting neighboring towns and breaking into stores.--Saturday's Owensboro Messenger.

Twenty-three Miners Killed.

Bluefield, W. Va., Jan. 4.--Twenty-three miners were killed by an explosion at the mines of the Coalado Coal Co. & Coke Company today. Eighteen others were seriously injured.

"GOLDEN ROD" SHINES NO MORE.

Mrs. S. J. Cain Dies Suddenly--Correspondent of News for Many Years.

HER LIFE A STAR OF HOPE.

It is my sad duty to chronicle the death of Mrs. Sallie Jolly Cain, (Golden Rod) which occurred at the home of her father, T. J. Jolly last Friday morning at about seven o'clock.

Her death was so sudden and a severe shock to the entire community which seemed appalled at the awful hand that so quickly and quietly took home to Him, she, who had seemed so full of life, and health, and strength.

She had arisen in the early morning, and while waiting for the breakfast hour wrote a letter to her absent boy "Tom," with a smile and pleasant word for the members of her family. She sat at the breakfast table, and after drinking a cup of coffee, moved from her place at the table to the stove and picked up a house hold pet, and seemed in an unusually fine spirit, when suddenly, without even a groan, she fell from her chair and when the family reached her, she had peacefully, without even a struggle, fallen asleep in the arms of Jesus, and while everything possible to restore life was done it was of no avail, and only the lifeless body remained to the agonized family.

Mrs. Cain was the eldest child of Thos. J. and Amanda Lee Jolly. She was born, March 20, 1854, and was married to W. H. Cain, Jr., in the fall of 1872. To this union six children were born, five of whom are living while one little baby in infancy passed over to await the coming of the precious mother on this sad day of the New Year. These five children, Florence, Robert, Jolly, (called Roy) Dr. Will Thomas, Beverly and Harburt together with the husband are left to mourn her loss, and to bless and cheer her memory.

In the sacred circle where she presided as wife and mother the beauties of a consecrated life shown forth, and the legacy of this faithful life is more precious to them than silver or gold. In her church, to which she was a loyal member, since her conversion at the age of twelve years; in the Sunday school; in the missionary society; her death has left a sad vacancy which time alone will fill.

Bro. D. S. Campbell came from Russellville to preach her funeral sermon. Bro. W. H. Roe, her pastor, assisting. Services were conducted at her father's house at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon. A large crowd of sorrowing friends followed her to her last resting place in the Blanford burial ground, where she was quietly laid to rest to await the morning of the resurrection, when we will understand what seems at this dark hour a cruel and sudden blow. All we can do is to live so that we may meet her in a better world than this, for we believe she is with the angels now, and it is her gain and happiness to be with the Saviour she loved and served so faithfully here. Earth is brighter because she has been here, and heaven is nearer, because she has gone there.

BANDY-MILLER HOME WEDDING

Near Guston--Irvington Social Club Entertained By Mrs. Piggott.

DRUGGISTS OF 2 COUNTIES MEET

Irvington, Ky., Jan. 9--(Special.)--Miss Hattie Bandy was married to Mr. John Miller by Rev. E. W. Graves, of Irvington, at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Will McCoy, near Guston, on Monday last. They will live near here on a farm at present.

The social club was delightedly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Piggott on New Year's evening. Delicious refreshments were served. Everyone went away with a happy heart and good wishes for every body during the New Year.

The druggist of Meade and Breckenridge counties had a meeting here Friday afternoon and organized themselves with the National Association of Retail Druggists.

Tate--McGruder.

Miss Lennie Tate, of McGavock neighborhood, was married to Mr. Lee McGruder, of Owensboro, at Hawesville, last week. Miss Tate is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tate and a beautiful girl with many accomplishments. Mr. McGruder is a sturdy, prosperous farmer. Mr. and Mrs. McGruder will live at Pettit, Daviess county. The News extends good wishes.

LADIES' AID AT BIG SPRING

Has Delightful New Year Party at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Strother.

HOLIDAY IDEA CARRIED OUT.

Big Spring, Ky., Jan. 8--(Special.)--Mrs. Wm. H. Strother and Miss Strother entertained the Ladies' Aid society delightfully New Year evening with a "Good Luck" party. The holiday idea was carried out in detail and the whole house was beautifully decorated in red and green. The rooms were decorated in graceful festoons of evergreen, tinsel and etc., with numerous red horse shoes used effectively. The green was relieved by center red New Year bells. For amusement there was a delightful hunt for three hundred red and sixtynine four leaf clovers. Miss Mayme Trent found the greatest number and was presented with a four leaf clover stickpin.

A buffet luncheon was served and central table had a centerpiece of tinsel lace and lighted by a brass candelabra and candle sticks with red shades.

The dining room was otherwise decorated in palms and ferns and a canopy of red and green tinsel. There were about twenty guests present and the amount taken in was $6.95.

Cincinnati Saloons.

Cincinnati, Jan. 5.--For the first time in twenty years all of the saloons of this city were closed at midnight tonight and the midnight closing law was observed. This general closing of the saloons is a result of an order issued today by Mayor Dempsey, elected on the Democratic ticket in the recent election. During the night the police raided several gambling houses and broke up all the paraphernalia.

Mrs. Oelze Entertains.

Mr. and Mrs. Amile Oelze entertained a party of friends last Thursday night at a 6 o'clock dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Payne, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Conrad, Mrs. Mary Oelze, Miss Ethel Oelze, Messrs. Harry Hills and Walter Oelze.

START THE NEW YEAR RIGHT.

Sunday Services at M. E. Church Crowded--Two Good Sermons By Rev. Currie.

NEW YEAR SABBATH IS QUIET.

Cloverporters started the New Year right last Sabbath. Large congregations were had at all the churches, and the day was spent in quietness. Services were held at the Catholic church and a good discourse was delivered by Father Celestial Brey.

No church services were held at the Baptist and Presbyterian churches. Morning and night preaching by Rev. B. M. Currie was had at the M. E. church. Rev. Currie gave forceful talks from Matthew 7:21, in the morning and Genesis 37:4 at the night service.

The B. Y. P. U. and Epworth League had their regular devotional meetings Sunday evening. Prof. J. P. King, first vice-president of the League, led the exercises of that society. He made an impressive talk to the Leaguers in connection with the scheduled topic. They will have hereafter a regular program arranged and carried out at each of its devotional meetings. The social committee under the direction of the third vice-president, Miss Jennie Harris, will have charge of the program and its rendition.

26-YEAR-OLD JUDGE HENRY

Presides Over His First Case With Dignity--Says "Go to Jail."

FILLING CAMPAIGN PROMISES.

Hardinsburg, Ky., Jan. 9--(Special.)--Judge Henry D. Moorman heard his first case Saturday. He presided with dignity. The case concerned a colored girl who was charged with home-breaking. In default of bail she was sent to jail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

The case of Breckenridge Bank vs. Smart and Company, was argued by the Court of Appeals last week. This is a victory for the bank, and ends the litigation which has been long drawn out.

"Watches" on Board Ship.

On board all ships a series of "watches" are established, so that work is shared equally among the sailors. To aid this object also the crews are divided into two divisions, starboard and port. A ship's day commences at noon, and there are seven watches. The watch which is on duty in the forenoon one day has the afternoon next day, and the men who have four hours' rest one night have eight hours the next. This is the reason for having "watches," which are made by dividing the hours between 4 p. m. and 8 p. m. into two.

Financial Panic Predicted.

New York, Jan. 4.--Unless there is currency reform, a panic beside which former panics will seem insignificant, was predicted by Jacob H. Schiff, head of the banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. in a speech before the New York Chamber of Commerce today. Mr. Schiff said he did not regard such a panic as imminent, but believed it will come unless something is done to remedy the lack of elasticity of the present currency system. He declared that he did not favor the plan proposed by secretary of the Treasury Shaw for relief of the situation, it being his opinion that the Secretary's plan would amount to speculation rather than legitimate business. Mr. Schiff favored a currency based on commercial paper as more helpful to the general business interests of the country.

THOUGHTS.

It's not alone the forming resolutions that makes the year's first day—It's the retrospect of the twelve months gone that counts more than all. Are we any better, have we performed the good deeds that we promised ourselves, have we conquered any habits which threatened our well being, have we grown honest with our business associates, more liberal with those not so well conditioned as ourselves? We "march forth unto the things which are before," but shall we "forget those things which are behind?"—Amiel.

Be careful now—don't burn your shoes.

Judge Henry Moorman is now judging.

Hardinsburg has a "Fireside Club."

President Roosevelt will soon be a father-in-law.

Man is the most certain animal on earth—at meal time.

What do you think of Russell Sage at ninety and making $75,000 a day?

Emerson says the one prudence in life is concentration, the one evil is dispersion.

The only thing in this country that gets away with the Standard Oil Co. is the bad roads.

Hardinsburg is to have a lyceum course. "Sweet Lavender," however, has not been billed yet.

Kentucky Republicans have some consolation in the fact that the new senator is from a Republican county.

The American Society of Equity in this county has decided to pool the tobacco crop raised last year. A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush.

Our Patesville correspondents wishes us a bright, happy and prosperous New Year. We will try to be bright and happy—but the prosperous part—we can't say about that.

A girl in Hancock county asked Santa Claus for an automobile and got it. That's nothing. We know a Cloverport boy who asked Santa for one three times a day for a month and didn't get it.

Our Raymond correspondent says: "The pound party at Sam Aters Saturday night was quite a success. Plenty to eat."

We suggest that Cloverporters have one for the benefit of Walter Oulze and Ira Behen.

Chauncey M. Depew says that he has no intention whatever of resigning his seat in the United States Senate. Mr. Depew is nearly seventy-two years old. He is a director in seventy-nine companies from which he intends to resign and then devote his entire time to his work in the Senate.

There are 854 banking institutions in New York State with resources of over $5,305,000,000, an amount equal to about 38 per cent of the entire banking power of the United States. The great bulk of these resources are concentrated in the city of New York, the larger part of them in Wall street district.

"The Elizabethtown News has been changed from a weekly to a semi-weekly. The News has recognized that the people of the country are no longer content with the ways and they care little for a weekly paper."—Owensboro Inquirer.

From the list of men the Owensboro Inquirer has bankrupted in its attempt to maintain a place as a daily paper it is also very plain "that the people of the country are no longer content with the ways and care little" for a daily paper like the Inquirer.

"Golden Rod" is dead. A life that has made its world ring with good cheer and that has served the News as no other could do has suddenly, peacefully and fearlessly gone out. The death of Mrs. S. J. Cain grieves us. We are sad because of it and sorry with the loved ones that survive this notable, estimable woman. But to these loved ones we say be of good cheer and follow the example of this great woman for she has crossed the river to that better land and is wearing the crown that awaited her there.

Our Senator the Hon. Richard W. Owen came in for his share of honors in the distribution of places on the various committees in the Senate. He gets Chairmanship of the Committee on Printing and is a member of the Committee on Claims, Classification of Cities and Towns, Immigration and Labor, Federal Relations, Penitentiaries, and Houses of Reform, Reapportionment of Legislative Districts, Sinking Fund, and Ways and Means.

The Hon. Ed. Shellman our Representative is well provided for also. He is Chairman of Committee on Appropriations and a member of the Committee on Charitable Institutions.

The Hon. A. J. Thompson, of Meade, is Chairman of the Committee on Agriculture, and a member of the Committee on Charitable Institutions, Corporations, Appropriations and Military Affairs.

The Hon. Peter Best, Jr., of Hancock, gets a place on the Committee on Military Affairs.

During the year past the wage-people have got a nearer look at the salary-people, and they like the looks of the—salaries. Hence we espouse the cause of bigger stipends in full expectation of a great wave of approving and supporting enthusiasm. Let every bank-president have all the salary he wants. Let our public officials fix their own price. Make a minimum of $10,000 for teachers professors and pastors. Editors, physicians, nurses, and other people who devote their lives to the suffering ought to have from $50,000 up—to this to make up for unrequited service in the past. For all ordinary labor ten dollars a day is as little as we ought to have the face to offer. Cook-ladies, wash-ladies and other household jewels should have a diamond a day.

In short in this good year of 1906 let money flow as water from the town-pump. If this is done the year will be without rancor and class-bitterness, for everybody will have all the money each pay-day that he can carry home.—Judge.

SIMON MAGUS.

The Legend From Which Was Born
The Story of Faust.

Almost every renowned man of antiquity in the middle ages was believed to be attended by a spiritus familiaris and not a few were suspected of being in direct league with the devil. Probably the oldest legend of which the Faust legend is a continuous thread is that of Simon Magus, mentioned in the history of the apostles.

According to Justin, he was a native of Gilton, a village in Samaria. He was, no doubt, a man of great intellectual powers. He was the father of the school of the Gnostics. It is also reported of him that he could make himself invisible, that he could pass through flames unharmed, could transmute matter, make gold and exercise demons—in fact, he laid claim to all these powers, and his name lived in the mouths of the people as a sort of demigod through many centuries until some other miracle working personality took his place at the popular fable. Unusual accomplishments, great erudition, were attributed to the supernatural influence and the general disposition to superstition associated with him, strengthened on the one hand by dogmatic affirmation on the part of the church of the existence of a personal Satan, with his numerous loved-ones, and, on the other hand, by incorporating the magic arts among the practical sciences, of which astrology and alchemy occupied no mean part.

THE ODD LITTLE GECKO.

A Queer Animal That Lives in Africa and Southern Europe.

The gecko is an odd little creature. His name is seldom heard, and his form is seldom seen, for he lives in Africa and the southern countries of Europe.

This little gecko has so many strange ways and there is something so uncanny in his appearance that the people of the countries where he lives are rather afraid of him, believing his bite to be poisonous, although this is denied by naturalists.

He is a little creature, with a broad, flat-head, like a snake, and a long body, with a narrow tail, with odd shaped bits of skin arranged like scapulae along the sides of it. He has short legs and queer, catlike claws, which enable him to easily climb the odd walls and rocks upon which he lives, catching the insects of various sorts which make his dinner.

He is a nocturnal animal, walking abroad at night and sleeping in the daytime. He moves with sudden rushes and without any noise whatever. His odd name was given him from the queer noise he makes, which is something like the noise you would make to start a horse with. The male gecko is of a gray color, so near the shade of the old walls and rocks among which he makes his home that he can barely be seen.

Chinese Children.

The education of their children is a matter of no small interest to the affectionate Chinese mother. They watch the little one from the day he is born, to note superstitious signs. Let him cry lustily, and he will live long, say the old granams. If he coughs or walks too soon he will grow up unlovable in disposition. At first the little Chinese are not very attractive objects, presenting rather a scaly appearance, due to the custom of not washing them lest they catch cold. A month after his birth the boy's head is shaved. A great feast is prepared and celebrated, the child now receiving his "milk name." When he enters school his name is changed, as it is once more when he receives his degree.—Pilgrim.

LETTER TO BRECKENRIDGE NEWS READERS.

Short & Haynes Guarantee Hymel to Cure Catarrh or It Costs Nothing.

Editor of the Breckenridge News:

In view of the prevalence of catarrhal troubles at this season of the year we want to tell you readers that we have never sold anything that gave more satisfaction than Hymel, when used in catarrhal troubles. You get immediate relief from the treatment, and consistent use will prove to every sufferer, as it has to many of our customers, the virtue of this prescription.

Personally, we are interested in Hymel, for it is made and sold on honor, and we do not want your money unless you are benefited and satisfied.

There is no stomach dosing in connection with Hymel. It is a thoroughly local treatment for a local disease, and its soothing, healing medication goes direct to the spot where it is needed.

The complete Hymel outfit consists of a pocket inhaler, a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hymel, and the price is only $1, while additional bottles can be obtained for 50 cents.

We positively guarantee a cure when Hymel is used in accordance with directions, or we will refund your money. This certainly shows our faith and belief in the virtues of Hymel.

Yours very truly,
Short & Haynes.

The Clover Blossoms will celebrate George Washington's birthday. Mrs. Robert E. Pierce assisted by the older members and co-workers of the society are arranging an interesting program for the celebration.

Those who attend are asked to bring as many pennies as they are years of age. The money received will be used for a missionary cause.

The entertainment will be given at 7:30 o'clock in the evening in the parlors and Sunday school room of the Methodist church.

Junio pickles, best in town—English Kitchen.

Ed. Morrison went to Louisville Sunday to spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Morrison.

J. D. Gregory went to New Albany Sunday.

Sidney C. Taul, of near town, came here Saturday to accept a position at the brick yard. Mr. Taul has recently returned from Morgansfield, Mo., where he has been engaged in farming. Mr. Taul is an industrious young man and a member of a prominent family of Breckenridge county.

C. R. Bunnett, proprietor of the box ball alley here, went to Elizabethtown Saturday prospecting. He will probably remove his alleys from here at an early date.

Mrs. Long and Miss Fannie Haidin, of Addison, were guests of Mrs. T. Skillman Saturday.

Miss A. Belle Allen, Hawesville, attended the funeral of Mrs. T. F. Satterfield Monday.

Proverbs

"When the butter won't come put a penny in the churn," is an old time dairy proverb. It often seems to work though no one has ever told why.

When mothers are worried because the children do not gain strength and flesh, we say give them Scott's Emulsion.

It is like the penny in the milk because it works and because there is something astonishing about it.

Scott's Emulsion is simply a milk of pure cod liver oil with some hypophosphites especially prepared for delicate stomachs.

Children take to it naturally because they like the taste and the remedy takes just as naturally to the children because it is so perfectly adapted to their wants.

For all weak and pale and thin children Scott's Emulsion is the most satisfactory treatment.

We will send you the penny, I. e., a sample free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409 Pearl St. N. Y. soc. and druggists.

Harmon Driskell, Harned, and J. L. Wheatley, Duke, were in town Monday looking for a job. They expect to move their families here if they can find work.

Miss Elouise Nolte is sick. J. H. Rowland was in Louisville Monday.

Mrs. Chas. Hall returned from Louisville Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ryan, Henderson, are visiting relatives here.

Miss Pauline Moorman has returned from a visit to her father at St. John, Ky.

C. M. Stephens and family have moved to Owensboro.

James Satterfield, Pineville, attended the funeral of his mother, Mrs. T. F. Satterfield, Monday.

Ida Hall is building a 30 foot launch to be used for gathering mussel shells. The boat will be equipped with a 4 horse power engine.

T. F. Sawyer will soon begin the construction of another boat, 50 feet long, equipped with a two cylinder engine. This will be the largest boat that Mr. Sawyer has ever built.

Tobacco came in freely to the local receiving houses last week. A good price is being received for all of it. C. W. Moorman, Sr., is buying for J. H. Phelon.

The high school will render another play in the local play house in about a month, under the direction of Prof. J. P. King.

"A Regular Flib" is the style of it and eight characters are used. Miss Ray Hesser will be the heroine. The rest of the cast has not been given out. The A. O. U. W. lodge also will probably render another play here soon.

Capt. Marion Ryan was stricken with partial paralysis in Louisville last week.

St. John Boyd, a prominent citizen and lawyer, of Louisville, is dead.

The roofing tile made by The Murray Roofing Tile Company which covers a number of houses in town is standing the test of severest weather. Every roof in town has given perfect satisfaction. Cloverport should congratulate itself on making the finest roofing in the world.

A protracted cold wave is predicted.

About a half an inch of snow fell here Sunday night.

Nace Lewis has sold to George N. Mullen and Ella Mullen the Corley house and lot in the west end for $600 cash.

Charles Satterfield, Jr., has been very ill with rheumatism but is better.

Curtis Ryan, Tobsport, has taken Arthur Helm, a boy from the Baptist orphans Home, at Louisville. Helm has recently been in the care of Mr. John Keith.

Rev. L. I. Sanders preached at Tobsport Sunday morning and night.

HAIR AND BEARDS.

They Have Played Important Parts in the World's History.

In centuries past the human hair played an important part in all judicial proceedings. Those that were permitted to wear beard and hair had rights that could not be claimed by the shorn and shaved. When men made oaths they touched their beard and hair, and women placed the finger tips of the right hand on their foreheads.

Servants were obliged to have their hair cut, and if a freedman went into slavery he had to divest himself of his hair. Admittedly, an adult adopted by foster parents was obliged to have his beard shaved, and the shaving of beard and hair was a punishment inflicted on criminals. The jurisprudence of our ancestors dealt with punishment "by skin and hair" for small offenses and "by neck and hand" for greater crimes.

There has always been more or less superstition about hair. Great strength was implied by it, and wizards and witches knew of concoctions of hair by which they poisoned enemies. Cat's hair was especially named in the category of poisonous hairs, and even at the beginning of the seventeenth century Paulus Zacchias, a famous physician, writes of the virulent poison of the hair of cats.

Among civilized people such superstitions beliefs have gone out of existence, and only Malays give their enemies tiger hairs in broth to kill them.

BIRD JOURNEYS

Small Animals often Travel on the Backs of Large Ones.

It has often been asked how small and weak birds manage to fly such enormous distances when migrating. As a rule, however, small birds that have come very far across the sea have not flown, but have been blown over during violent gales, and many of them arrive on land in a half dead condition.

In fair weather small birds make long journeys successfully over considerable tracts of ocean, but the reason is that they are carried on the backs of the larger ones. When passing an autumn in Crete a writer asserts that he distinctly heard the twittering of small birds when flocks of sand cranes were passing overhead on their way to southern shores. On another occasion, when firing a gun, he saw three small birds rise from the flock and disappear again among the cranes. A native priest assured him that they came over from Europe with them, while it has been found that small birds, never before seen in certain parts, have been brought thither at times of migration.

Another cause is that small birds do not make their journeys in one flight. They generally rest during the day, searching for food, and thus proceed to their destination by easy stages.

THE PEARL WORKERS.

A Bethlehem Industry Which is Five Hundred Years Old.

The chief industry of Bethlehem of Judea is that of the mother-of-pearl workers.

The shells are brought from the Red sea and in the hands of native artisans are polished and carved, the larger into elaborate designs. The smaller are cut up for rosaries and crosses. The work is all done by hand, and the methods are amazingly primitive to a spectator from the home of steam and electric power. But the results are extraordinarily fine. The largest shell we saw was curved in shape from the birth of Christ, the agony in the garden and the crucifixion, and had the general effect of delicate fretwork. Under the magnifying glass every detail was seen to be perfect in outline and in finish. It was exciting to order for a wealthy American and was to cost $100.

About 150 people make a living by this industry, which is 500 years old. In the shops the workmen sit upon the floor, their benches in front of them. The air is full of whitish dust, and the light admitted by the single window and the open door is so dim that the exquisite tracery of the wrought shells is a mystery even before the visitor has seen how few, simple and crude are the instruments employed. — Marion Harland in Lippincott's.

THE CALM BAD MAN.

He is More Dangerous Than the One Who Blusters.

The bad man of genuine sort rarely loosed the part assigned to him in the popular imagination. The long haired blusterer, adorned with a dialect that never was spoken, serves very well in eastern fiction about the west, but that is not the real thing. The most dangerous man was apt to be quiet and smooth spoken. When an antagonist blustered and threatened, the most dangerous bad man only felt rising in his own soul, keen and stern, that strange exultation which often comes with combat for the man naturally brave. A western officer of established reputation once said to me while speaking of a personal difficulty into which he had been forced: "I haven't been in anything of that sort for years, and I wished I was out of it. Then I said to myself, 'Is it true that you are getting old and have lost your nerve?' Then all at once the old feeling came over me. I was and I was just like I used to be. I felt calm and happy, and I laughed after that. I jerked my gun and shoved it into its scabbard. He put up his hands and apologized. 'I will give you a hundred dollars now,' he said, 'if you will tell me where you got that gun.' I supposed I was a trifle quick for him." — St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Root Dogs of New York.

There are dogs in New York that never set foot on the street. They belong to the janitors in the downtown buildings, and their runways consist of the roofs of the buildings in which their owners live and adjoining roofs on the same level. That is a rare day when the office worker on looking out of the sixteenth story window does not see half a dozen dogs romping about upon the roofs beneath him. There is one advantage at least in being a roof dog—the dog catcher has no terrors for him.

A Good Beginning.

Snythe—I intend Harry for the bar. Would you advise his beginning on such old works as Coke and Blackstone. Tompkins—No. I would begin by grounding him even further back. Snythe—Indeed! In what? Tompkins—The Ten Commandments.

Division of Profits.

Litigant—You take nine-tenths of the judgment? Outrageous! Lawyer—I furnished all the skill and eloquence and legal learning for your cause. Litigant—But I furnished the cause. Lawyer—Oh, indeed, could that!

A Reflection.

Patton Brick Yard Scene

of Much Activity.

Patton's brick yard is once more the scene of activity. The clamor, hatches, carter's saw make this old land mark ring with industry. The seven original kilns will be put in repair at once and used. The brick tunnel kiln which was recently built at a cost of upwards to $30,000 will not be put in operation until it is given a trial when the plant is in good running order. A new modern dry house will take the place of the old ones which have been torn away. Two new engines will be installed and an automatic order. All of the buildings are being erected, a commissary will probably be run as before when the Brick company was in charge. Twenty-five men are now on the payroll which amounts to $125 per week. Lack of material is causing much delay in the general overhauling of the plant but the management says it will probably have the yard in full operation within sixty days. Inquiries are being received every day for brick and no trouble will be had in placing the output of 60,000 per day.

Former Hardinsburg Man

Dies at Louisville.

Joseph Allen Boyd, a well-to-do retired business man of Owensboro, Ky., and formerly a resident of Louisville, died of arterio sclerosis yesterday afternoon at Beechhurst Sanitarium. Mr. Boyd had been suffering from the malady for six years, and because of his ill-health he had retired from active business life five years ago. He had been confined to his home for three years. He was fifty-four years of age.

He was a native of Hardinsburg, Ky. He was a son of the late Robert L. Boyd, who was a partner in the firm of Boyd & Alexander, wholesale and retail dealers in guns, which was located on Queen street, between Seventh and Eighth. Mr. Boyd was a graduate of State College at Lexington.

Mr. Boyd, with his parents, moved to Louisville twenty-nine years ago, and had lived in Louisville twelve years. For several years he had been a traveling man employed by Bamberger, Bloom & Co. He later went to Owensboro, Ky., and became identified with the firm of Brown, McCulloch & Co., J. W. McCulloch and M. V. Monarch, distillers and wholesale whisky dealers. For several years he was proprietor of the Planters' Hotel at Owensboro.

Mr. Boyd was brought to Louisville last August for treatment. He is survived by two brothers, Mr. H. D. Boyd, of Owensboro, Ky., and Mr. Charles L. Boyd, of Texas; one sister, Miss Letitia Boyd, of Owensboro. Deceased was a nephew of the late Clint McClary, Sr.

Funeral services will be conducted at Central's chapel, at Sixth and Chestnut streets. The burial will be in the family lot at Cave Hill cemetery and will be private.

The following are the pallbearers: Logan C. Murray, Clint McClary, Louis Seelbach, Dr. W. P. White and Spalding Coleman, of Louisville, and R. S. Hughes, of Owensboro.—Friday's Louisville Times.

Four Hundred Babies.
St. Vincent's Infant Asylum, Chicago, shelters homeless waifs awaiting adoption, and there are nearly 400 babies there. Sister Mary writes: "I cannot say too much in praise of Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Contains no opiates and is safe and sure. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and insist upon having it as it is a safe remedy and certain in results. Refuse substitutes.—Sold by A. R. Fisher."

Smallpox Near Chambers.

Two cases of smallpox have developed at Chambers, this county. Young Sam Steele was first afflicted, having caught it at Owensboro. Living at the home of Roswell Brown, Mrs. Brown next fell a victim. The cases are of a light form. Other of the neighbors are reported to be similarly afflicted but we cannot vouch for the truth of it.—Hancock Clarion.

County Salaries Raised.

The Hancock fiscal court was in session last week, attending to the allowing of claims and other matters before the board went out of office the first of the year. Salaries of the following county officers were raised: School superintendent from $457 to $450; county judge, $550 to $600; county attorney, $300 to $400.—Hancock Clarion.

Caught at Hawesville.

Geo. Douglas is held in Hawesville on the charge of robbing Willis's store at that place. If the charge is not proven there, local authorities want him here for trial, he being a suspect in the robbing of F. Fraze's store in this city some time ago.

James Bast Case Heard.

Lawrenceburg, Ky., Jan. 4.—The jury in the case against James Bast, now being tried in the Circuit Court here on a charge of conspiring to murder James K. York, was quickly completed this morning when the second venire of men from Woodford county appeared in court, and the hearing of evidence was begun, after Commonwealth's Attorney Charles H. Sanford had made a striking statement of the case, with the difficulties surrounding it, and the testimony which would be produced. In his opening statement in the attorney paid a high tribute to the life and character of the dead man.

Greatly Demanded.

Nothing is more in demand than a medicine which meets modern requirements for blood and system cleanser, such as Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are just what you need to cure common and liver troubles. Try them. At Short and Haynes' drug store; price 25c, guaranteed.

Wed at Noon.

Washington, Jan. 4.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt have announced the wedding of Miss Alice Roosevelt to Representative Longworth, of Cincinnati, to take place Saturday, February 12, at 12 o'clock noon, in the east room of the White House.

Drugged to death.

A miserable invalid suffering from disordered female functions, monthly pains, nervousness, falling feelings, dizziness, indigestion, biliousness, constipation, etc., will find relief in Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Drain, two of the most valuable, reliable, scientific, curative medicines known for the treatment of sick women. They are sold at all drug stores, and should be in every home. Try them.

That West Point Site.

Representative D. H. Smith has revived the project of any army camp of maneuvers at West Point, Ky., by introducing in the House a bill appropriating $1,100,000 to buy a reservation, not exceeding 40,000 acres, in Hardin, Meade and Bullitt counties, in any two or two of them, as may seem desirable. The bill stipulation regarding locations is that the land shall be adjacent to West Point. There is very little prospect for the passage of Mr. Smith's bill, but Congressman Smith will join him in urging it before Congress.

The War Department cannot be depended upon to give the bill support of any value. The policy of the department is not so strongly in favor of buying land for big camps of instruction as formerly, as it has been found that land can be easily rented for the small sum of 5 cents an acre for a season.

Old Land Mark Town Away.

The last of the old houses which were used here fifty years ago by the Breckenridge Cannel coal company has been torn away. The house which was built of brick in the shape of a rectangle was situated near the railroad shops. It had been occupied in late years by negro families and was crumbling away so fast that it had to be vacated. With the passing of this building grew one of Cooper's monuments of the golden days that are no more.

Which is it?

At one end of our local backsmith shop hangs a sign which reads: "Drs. Taylor & Keene, Owensboro, Ky."

The question in the mind of the casual observer is: "Does that mean that the doctors' office is in the backsmith shop or is it only an advertisement?"

The meaning of the sign as it reads is that the office is in the shop for there is nothing on it to leave any other impression except that the office is inside the backsmith shop.

"Puppy" Love Back Again.

"Puppy" love has again broken into the ranks of our school boys and girls on the Hill. Whether this is at revision of the kind that permeated the body in the days of Prof. Maple or not is hard to say. But for lack of a better name it is termed "puppy" love. Since a power has this unappealing, unseemly little visitor come to the school, professors have been compelled to make stringent rules to govern the pupils of the third room which is the seat of knowledge where the common-school branches are ended. One rule in particular that has recently been introduced is that the girls cannot "stand" in the hallway lest they are smiled at by their suitors. The professors find this "puppy" love to be a great bother. Often times when they require written work from their scholars they have handed into them through mistakes sheets of paper covered with the best attempts of some boy artist and had under it the following: "This is my girl, ain't she sweet. Oh! I love her." In a corner will be: "Tare this up, quick, when you read it. Don't let 'tessor see it!"

A Tough Meat Story.

Of the food served to the sailors in the British navy of 100 years ago a recent historian says: "A ship's company had to start a cruise upon the old meat returned from various ships and routed out from the obscure corners of the victualling yards. 'Frequent' by it had been several years in salt before it came to the cook, by which time it needed either a magician than a cook to make it edible. It was of a strong, hardiness, almost, shrunken, dark, gritty and glistening with salt crystals. Strange tales were told about it. Old patrician women would tell of themselves found in the most cooked, curious brawling and neighboring heard in the slaughter houses and of men who disappeared near the victualling yards, to be seen no more. The salt beef, but the sailors could carve fancy articles, such as boxes, out of either meat."

Horses and Medicine.

Healthy horses require no medicine, but there are so many intestinal parasites and so many kinds of worms that affect horses that constant supervision pays. Almost all young horses are better for a few fees of sulphur in the springtime. Many horses like to give a little worm medicine, and each man has his favorite. A good many worm medicines are harmless, and if administered to a healthy colt will do no harm. Usually a keen horseman knows whether worm remedies are necessary or not, but in case of doubt it is a little safer to give the medicine, provided the medicine is reliable. Some medicines are harmless and some are not. Stimulants are not necessary, and stimulating medicines should never be given except on the advice of a veterinarian.—St. Louis Republic.

Gladstone's Speech For Irving.

Gladstone was a great admirer of Sir Henry Irving, and this admiration was shown one day in the house of commons. Irving was under the gallery in the House when Gladstone was in the house. Gladstone, in a moment of spontaneous reason, Gladstone leaped to his feet and delivered an impassioned speech, set off with all the expression and dramatic gesture for which he was so famous. The house seemed surprised. Members looked at one another and murmured, "What is the old man now up to?" They thought it was a joke. Gladstone, however, was not joking. He was deeply political game. But a week or two later a friend of Irving's, encountering Mr. Gladstone, mentioned the fact that Gladstone had been so eagerly inquired: "What did he think of my speech?" I made it for him."

The Best-Selling Book in the United States

NEDRA

By GEORGE BARR McCUTCHEN

Author of "Gruelard," "Bevelly of Gruelard," etc.

You will be charmed with this delightful new story of Mr. McCutchen's. Between two young men and two bewitching heroines there ensues a beautifully complicated love affair, with many exciting adventures as a setting. But Fate brings about a smooth and satisfying denouement through the means of a shipwreck, in which the four are coupled and the couples separated.

"It would sell by the thousands and thousands even if Hanson Fisher had not taken the very prettiest girl for the cover."—Denver Republican.

Neighbor's Preliminary Trial.

A preliminary trial of J. R. Neighbors, who owns a saloon in Elizabethtown, Ky., charged with shooting and killing Bill Tavi-r Hobbs and wounding Thomas Chenault on Saturday before Christmas, the evidence showed that Hobbs and Chenault came into Neighbors' saloon drunk and were making a great deal of noise, when he asked them to keep quiet. This gave offense to them and Hobbs started to fight Neighbors with an ugly looking dirk knife. Neighbors then drew his pistol and fired it over Hobbs' head, thinking that that would deter him from further advancing, but Hobbs kept coming towards him and seeing that his life was in peril, he fired. Hobbs fell to the floor with a bullet wound near his heart. He died almost instantly.

Chenault about that time threw a brick bat at Neighbors, who turned and fired at Chenault and wounded him in the arm. Chenault was taken to an infirmary in Louisville to have the bullet extracted and to be otherwise treated for his wound. Neighbors was held in a bond of $1,000 in the Hobbs case and $500 for wounding Chenault, to answer the action of the grand jury. Hobbs was a citizen of the Vine Grove section of Hardin county, as is Chenault. Hobbs leaves a wife and eleven children, while Chenault is unmarried.

Death of Mr. Dyer.

Mr. Wm. Dyer, aged about thirty-five, died at his home Monday last week at 5:30 a. m., of consumption. The remains were buried at Lewisport. Mr. Dyer came to Hancock county eight years ago from Breckenridge county, and is said to have been a good citizen. He left a wife and three children, the former before marriage being Miss Stinnett.—Hancock Clarion.

So JOE DEFEATED.

It is the act of the voters of the county who have elected Names Paynter on the ticket for the office of Sheriff. The result of the election was a defeat for Joe. The result of the election was a defeat for Joe.

TU AND SHELLMAN VOTE FOR PAYNTER.

TAK elected with 59 votes, defeated with 34 votes. Miss a side-issue with 10 votes, is part of it of the caucus at Frankfort today, a week ago. Harvey McChesney, Eli Brown and Ed. Finley elected prison commissioners. In the interest and at times much excitement denominated the caucus. Campbell made an eloquent oration nominating Senator Blackburn. Will A. Young nominated Paynter with a neat speech in which he praised his political record. Haldeman was nominated by Thomas Drewery. Blackburn after he had been defeated walked slowly to the speakers' stand with thumb in his trousers' pocket and right hand at ease and with a style of oratory that is now almost extinct dedicated his life to the war which had begun "to save the State to the Democratic party and went power from the oligarchy which now rules it."

Senator R. W. Owen and representative Ed. Shellman cast their ballots for Paynter. Thomas H. Paynter was born in Lewis county December 19, 1851, and is now in his fifty-fifth year. He has been for some years a member of the Court of Appeals. His early education was acquired in the Lewis county public schools, which was supplemented by study in the Rand Academy and later by a course at Center College at Danville. After leaving old Center he became a study of his profession. His preparation for the bar was thorough and accurate, and his success in the practice of his profession was marked and immediate. He was admitted to the bar in 1873 and opened his first office in Greensboro, where he soon built up a large practice. He lived in Greensboro until elected to the Court of Appeals in 1876. He was appointed County Attorney and served until 1878, when he was elected to the same office, which he held until 1882. He was a member of the Fifty-first Congress and twice re-elected, serving from 1889 until 1895. In 1894 Judge Paynter was elected to the Appellate Court and re-elected in 1900.

State Senator Will Tain H. Cox, of Mayville, was unanimously nominated by the joint Republican caucus in Frankfort Wednesday night, last, for the United States Senator to oppose Judge T. Paynter.

The Grip. "Before we can sympathize with others, we must have suffered ourselves." No one can realize the suffering attendant upon an attack of the grip unless he has had the actual experience. There is probably no disease that causes so much physical and mental agony, or which so successfully defies medical aid. All danger from the grip, however, may be avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy, not one case ever has been reported that has resulted in pneumonia or that has not recovered. For sale by Short & Haynes.

The Spirit of Winter.

The Spirit of Winter is with us, making its presence known in many different ways—sometimes by cheery sunshine and glistening snows, and sometimes by driving winds and blinding storms. To many people it seems to take a delight in making bad things worse, for rheumatism twists harder, twinges sharper, catarrh becomes more annoying, and the many symptoms of scrofula are developed and aggravated. There is not much poetry in this, but there is truth, and it is a wonder that more people don't get rid of these ailments. The medicine that once them—Hood's Sarsaparilla—is easily obtained and there is abundant proof that its cures are radical and permanent.

Dangers of a Cold and How to Avoid Them.

More fatalities have their origin in or result from a cold than from any other cause. This fact alone should make people more careful as there is no danger whatever from a cold, when it is properly treated in the beginning. For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been recognized as the most prompt and effectual medicine in use for this disease. It acts on nature's plan, loosens the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Sold by Short & Haynes, Cloverport.

Indigestion is easily overcome by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure because this remedy digests what you eat and gives the stomach a rest—allows it to recuperate and grow strong again. Kodol relieves Indigestion, Belching of Gas, Sour Stomach, Heart Burn, etc., and enables the digestive organs to transform all foods into the kind of rich red blood that makes health and strength. Sold by all Druggists.

New League Officers Assume Their Duties.

The local chapter of the Epworth League had its regular monthly business meeting last Tuesday night at which the newly elected officers for 1906 assumed their duties. The thirty vice-president Miss Jennie Harris who has charge of the social department appointed the following on her committee: Misses Eva and Edith Plank and Donald Murray. Miss Louise Babbage who is the fourth vice-president and in whose duties in particular are to bring in new members appointed the following on her committee: Misses Grace Agnew, Mayme DeHaven, Jane Smith and Mr. Poindester Gallows. A committee of Miss Louise Babbage, Rev. B. M. Currie and Prof. J. H. King was organized to draw up and have printed pledge cards which all members of the League will be requested to sign. The social department was requested to prepare a program to be rendered at the close of each monthly business meeting. The League is as strong in finances as in members.

For coughs and colds no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It is different from all others—better, because it expels all cold from the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels. Affords immediate relief in Croup, Coughs, Colds, Whooping-cough, etc. Children love it. Sold by all Druggists.
